FOREWORD

The turn of the half century finds us looking back on the accomplishments of four years at Kendallville High School. The social events we have enjoyed, the sports we have entered and the friendships we have made are as much a part of school life as the classroom training we have had and the lessons we have prepared.

The class of 1950 presents this book to friends, teachers and students as a record of those activities that will linger with us at the turn of the century.

DEDICATION

To Miss Valenti, who for many years has offered to students of Kendallville High School not only subject matter, but also guidance in teen-age problems and a workable philosophy of life, we, the members of the Class of 1950, dedicate this volume of Kay Aitch Ess.

NINETEENTH CENTURY SCHOOL

This building (above), the old central building, stood the greater part of a century. Because it became obsolete it was replaced by our present school building (below). There was a great change in the structure and design of the new building from that of the old. It is our privilege to attend a school such as we now have.

TWENTIETH CENTURY SCHOOL

ACADEMIC

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education is composed of Mr. Carl Miller, president; Mrs. L. D. Baker, secretary; and Mr. Harold Hanes, treasurer.

SECRETARIES

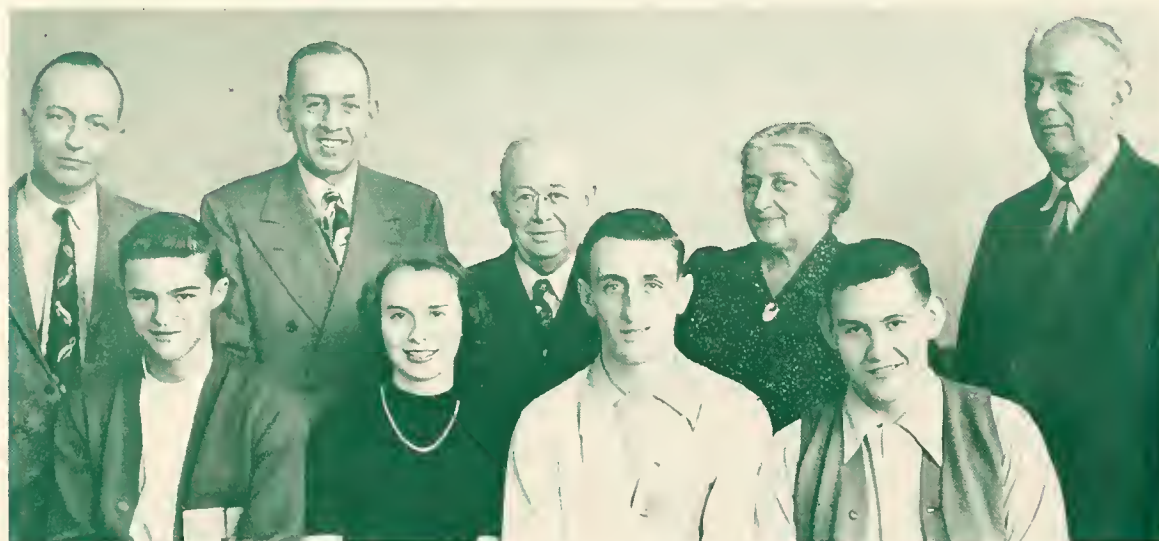

Miss Helen Foehl,
secretary to
Mr. Brumbaugh

Mrs. Paul
Beiswanger, secretary to
Mr. Tritch

BOARD OF CONTROL

The members of the Board of Control are: seated—Bob Butler, Martha Lieb, Joe Hornett, Bob Mory; standing—Mr. Tritch, Mr. Schwab, Mr. Howerton, Miss Valenti, Mr. Guymon.

ADMINISTRATION

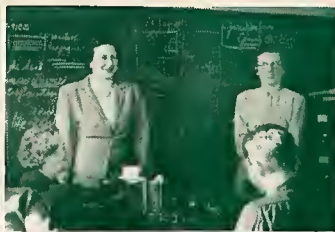

For the past 28 years of this half century L. S. Brumbaugh has aided the K. H. S. students, and for the past six years has assumed the great responsibility of superintendent of Kendallville Public Schools.

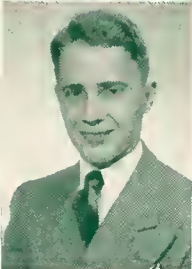

Royal Tritch, senior high principal and Frank Schwab, junior high principal struggled through another year with great success. They have helped us to gain more knowledge for the coming years.

THE CAMP OF THE FORTY - NINERS

In the atmosphere of the gold rush the seniors were entertained by the juniors at the 1949 banquet. Upon entering the camp of the "49-ers" each guest became a prospector looking for fortune.

The walls and stage of the banquet room were appropriately decorated with pictured scenes from the old west. Palm trees and clusters of grapes were scattered about the room and in one corner stood an old-fashioned covered wagon. On the tables were gold doilies and miniature covered wagons filled with "gold nuggets." Pins representing steers' heads which were given as souvenirs formed part of the table decorations.

A delicious feast prepared under the direction of Miss Vardaman was served by sophomore girls wearing long skirts and brightly colored sunbonnets.

SONGSTERS OF K. H. S.

The choir, under its new director, Mr. Boegli, has had a very successful year.

A new feature was added to the Christmas activities of the choir—they went caroling. They started the evening by singing at the hospital and ended it at Mr. Brumbaugh's. This was enjoyed by everyone who took part in it. It has become an annual custom for the choir to go through the halls of the school singing Christmas carols and to participate in the Christmas program in the auditorium.

Of course, there were the usual events: singing at the Good Friday service; National Music Week concert; regular auditorium programs; and the choir's final appearance was at the Baccalaureate service.

DIRECTORS

Mr. Boegli is in charge of the chorus, a cappella choir and boys' quartet. This is his first year with K. H. S. and not only can he teach, but he is a talented pianist. Mr. Chester Curry directs the High School and Cadet bands.

NOBLE CHORDS

K. H. S. has especially enjoyed the "Noble Chords," a quartet organized this year by Mr. Boegli. The boys have sung for many school programs and civic organizations. They are Howard Diehm, first tenor; Roger Berkes, second tenor; Kenny Freiburger, second bass; Jim Hetrick, first bass.

NOTES FROM

This year has brought many changes to the band.

An officer system in conjunction with the award system, has been inaugurated in the band. The officers consist of Band Captain, Don Jones; Lieutenants, Jack Lantz, Kay Strater, Martha Lieb, Alfred Gutstein, Bob Mory, Luanne Johnson, Kenneth Freiburger; Sergeants, Sandra Febles, David Fiantdt, Grace Wiese, Charles Moses; and Corporals, Charles Miller, and Dick Swafford.

The Kendallville Band-Parent Association has been organized this year for furtherance of instrumental possibilities. This brings the parents of the band members in closer contact with band activities.

Many band members have played solos for special community and school programs; ensembles have been organized and they, too, have played for special programs. These give students experience in group and solo playing; and, along with this experience, comes the ability to perform better with the band.

One of the important activities this year was the solo and ensemble contest held at Harrison Hill, Ft. Wayne. Thirty-six pupils entered from Kendallville. Many "Superior" ratings were given. These were: Karla Irons, cello; Carol Gardner, clarinet; Alfred Gutstein, clarinet; Carolyn Baker, clarinet; Sarah Tritch, piano; Nancy Gaskill, piano; Joan Friend, piano; Keith Feller, trombone; Martha Lieb, cornet; Luanne Johnson, Joan Friend, Sarah Tritch, flute trio; Martha Lieb, Roger Berkes, Jack Lantz, cornet trio. Also to be commended are the "Excellent" winners. These were: Charles Barger, trombone; Wayne Kimmel, saxophone; Fred Autenrieth, cornet; Hugh Hanes, cornet; Carolyn Spidel, mellophone; Lucia Irons, clarinet; Arthur Pankop, clarinet; Marilee Bennett, clarinet; Patricia Milnar, clarinet; Dianne Ihrle, clarinet; Mary Sheets, piano; Janet Shaffer, piano; Martha Lieb, piano; Luanne Johnson, flute; Dorothy Oliver, oboe; Alfred Gutstein, Grace Wiese, Carolyn Baker, clarinet trio; Carol Gardner, Dianne Ihrle, David Greiling, Patricia Milnar, clarinet quartette; Carol Gardner, Dianne Ihrle, David Greiling, Lucia Irons, clarinet quartette; Martha Lieb, Hugh Hanes, Fred Autenrieth, cornet trio.

Of course, there were the regular engagements: Halloween party, County Fair, Indoor Fair, Concerts, Pep sessions, Memorial Day parade. In addition to the regular basketball games, the band played at the Holiday Tourney. There was also a Christmas parade in which the band marched.

The band members who will graduate this year are: Sandra Febles, David Fiantdt, Martha Lieb, Mariann Menely, Bob Mory, Carolyn Riehm, and Elma Windle.

One piece played at all the basketball games is familiar to everyone in K. H. S.

Go you old K'ville,
Break right through that line
With your colors flying
We will cheer you all the time,
You! Rah! Rah!
Go you old K'ville,
Fight for victory
Spread forth the fame of our fair name
Go you K'ville, win that game.
Victory! Victory! Victory!
V I C T O R Y
Victory! Victory! K'ville High!

CADET BAND

The Cadet Band has been functioning for two years and is a training band to receive experience in ensemble playing. It meets twice a week in the band room.

A pupil is eligible for the Cadet Band when he has made sufficient progress on his instrument. When vacancies occur in the High School Band due to graduation and other causes, members from the Cadet Band are chosen to fill these positions.

WHAT'S IN

Auditorium programs are held every week and are planned and presented by Miss Robertson. In addition to student talent, five artists are chosen from the School Assembly Service. Kendallville High School is very proud of its auditorium and works hard to present fine programs. A brief summary of many of the programs is given here.

Sept. 9 Educational opportunities at K. H. S. was the topic of first auditorium program. Jim Hetrick, representing Father Time, was master of ceremonies. Mr. Brumbaugh welcomed the new students and Bob Butler told of the school activities and invited students to participate.

Sept. 23 Students and teachers told of their summer experiences; many had traveled.

Sept. 30 Alice and Herald Allen, radio and musical artists, demonstrated how sound effects are created in leading radio programs.

Oct. 7 The program was dedicated to the month of October. Many poems and skits, honoring James W. Riley, were presented by students.

Oct. 11 Mr. Emmet Belzer gave an informative lecture on telephony.

Oct. 26 Cheerleader tryouts and election were held. Bob Butler, Suzie Trowbridge and Jim Hetrick were elected.

Nov. 11 Freshmen presented the program, consisting of music, demonstrations and readings.

Nov. 16 Indians and their habits were discussed by Mr. Johnston Craig, local Boy Scout leader. A group of Boy Scouts then presented several Indian ceremonial dances. Donald Swank gave his famous Eagle Dance and Hoop Dance.

Dec. 2 The program started off with some musical numbers after which Mr. Stouder showed a movie, "Behind the Nation."

Dec. 9 "Little Women," a three act play, was presented by the Juniors and Seniors.

Dec. 14 This was a special program in which the students picked the numbers they wanted to hear. They proved to be very interesting and humorous.

AUDITORIUM TODAY?

Dec. 22 This was our annual Christmas carol service.

Jan. 6 Dick Grieting and his partner Tom Mullineux showed their skill on the trampoline. After showing the steps in learning, they chose three students to try their skill and demonstrate that a beginner can have fun on a trampoline.

Jan. 13 We found hidden talent in the "Talent Program" presented by members of each class.

Jan. 27 The theme of this program was American literature. Students portrayed various characters in literature by means of skits and readings.

Feb. 3 The Melody Four were presented as a special program. Their Swiss Bell ringing was very beautiful and unusual but we also enjoyed their singing.

Feb. 10 Since February is the birth month of two of our presidents, the choir, under the direction of Mr. Boegli, sang "This is My Country." Jeanette Bourne played a wire recording of "I Can Hear It Now." This was a recording of actual news broadcasts during and since World War II.

Feb. 17 Students who were to participate in the music contest at Fort Wayne, presented a musical program.

Feb. 21-Mar. 3 Pep sessions were held on both dates to teach new yells and get the fans in the spirit for Sectional and Regional tourneys.

Mar. 10 "So You Don't Like Poetry" was the lecture given by Mr. Webster. He found that the students did like it.

Mar. 17 Since it was St. Patrick's Day, an Irish program, including a skit by high school pupils, a movie showing Ireland and a talk by Mrs. Frances Fisher who recently visited Ireland, was presented.

Mar. 24 One act plays were presented by Miss Robertson's Speech classes.

Mar. 31 Since the next day was April 1, the April Fool Program seemed very fitting.

April 14 A movie "For Some Must Watch" was shown by Mr. Stouder.

April 21 Wig and Paint presented the three-act play "Our Town."

April 28 One act plays were presented by the English classes.

May 5 Mr. Morrison gave a lecture on "Great Composers."

May 12 With spring in the air what could have been better than a musical program presented by the Music Department.

MAKE UP

DRESSING ROOM

DRAMATIC BACKBONE OF K. H. S.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

President, Mariann Menely; Vice-President, Jim Hetrick; Secretary, Mary Jo Carteaux (absent from picture); Treasurer, Alfred Gutstein; Production Manager, David Moses; Assistant Production Manager, Kenneth Freiburger; Board Members, Carolyn Riehm, Gail Greiling, and Bill Wagner; Sponsors, Miss Robertson, Miss Eminger, Mr. Stouder and Dean Botchuck (absent from picture).

The members and apprentices all agree that the 1949-1950 Wig and Paint year is one which they will long remember. Many recalled with pride the two-week experience of twenty-four of its members at Purdue this past summer. There in July they put on the dramatic sequences of Howard Tooley's, "Pioneer Glory," and impersonating the voices of the historical characters of that pageant.

Another project which brought variety into the usual meetings of stunts and one-act plays was a series of classes. Lessons in lighting, make-up, and acting were presented by Dean Botchuck and Oakley Barrett, Miss Eminger and Miss Robertson, respectively.

Finally, in the spring the club celebrated the tenth anniversary of the auditorium by repeating the dedication play, "Our Town." Wig and Paint hopes to start a fund to be used for cleaning and repairing equipment which is beginning to show the effect of ten years of daily wear.

JUNIORS AND SENIORS PRESENT

Louisa M. Alcott's "Little Women" was presented in December by the combined efforts of the juniors and seniors. Too familiar to need retelling is the story of the four March sisters played by Carolyn Riehm, Mary Jo Carteaux, Joyce Milnar, and Bertha Haney. Other characters were impersonated as follows: Marmee, Ilse Jean Gentry; Father, Hilton Paulus; Laurie, Jim Hetrick; Mr. Laurance, David Fiandt; Aunt March, Betsy DeBelius; John Brooks, Clair Cripe; Professor Bhaer, Alfred Gutstein; Hannah, Mariann Menely; Daisy and Demi, Little Sue Zollman and Michael Igney; and four neighbor girls, Sandra Febles, Sallie Gardner, Lola Shultz, and Gail Greiling.

"LITTLE WOMEN"

Highlights in the play were the four girls listening to Marmee as she read Father's letter, the amateur play with the falling scenery, the Pickwick Club, the Christmas homecoming, surprise over Meg's twin babies, and the final reunion of the whole family around the piano.

A novel effect was gained by a series of shadow pictures beginning with Amy's adventures in France and ending with Beth's grave.

Appropriate furniture, statuary, and attractive costumes contributed much to the unusual success of "Little Women", the second and third acts of which were dramatized for the first time by Miss Robertson. Important on the back stage and business staff were Jim Jackson, Charles Walsh, Phil Kaiser, Helen Hart, Jo Ellen McCormick, Wally Smith, and others.

AUDITORIUM'S DEDICATION PLAY

This play is called "Our Town." It was written by Thornton Wilder and produced by Miss Robertson. The name of our town is Grover's Corners, N. H., just over the line from Massachusetts.

The first act shows a day in our town. Early morning activities in various places in Grover's Corners are shown. Then we are carried into the houses of the Gibbs' and Webb's in time for breakfast and are taken through one entire day in the lives of these good people. In the evening while Emily and George are yelling back and forth from their respective upstairs windows concerning their studies, many ladies of the town are attending choir rehearsal. On the way home from practice familiar gossiping of Mrs. Soames can be heard, concerning Simon Stimson, the choir director, who drinks.

Three years have gone by when the second act opens. This act might be entitled "Love and Marriage" for it concerns the love affair between young George Gibbs and little Emily Webb. As is often characteristic of those soon to be married, Emily and George were at first frightened to think of beginning a new life. However, after being reconciled, they were married in an impressive service without any doubts concerning their future.

As we once again look in on our town nine years have passed. We are led to the cemetery on the hill where many of the town people we have come to know so well are resting. Into their midst is led Emily, who has twice since been made a mother and has died in the last childbirth. She is a little timid at first, a little wishful to go back to life to live again with her memories. She makes an attempt to re-live a certain day but is shown how impossible it is. Emily returns back up the hill content with the fact that the past cannot be re-lived.

DRAMATIC LETTERS

The K. H. S. dramatic award in the form of a school letter was presented to each of the above people. The person who wears the dramatic letter is rightfully proud of it for it is the symbol of approximately one hundred fifty hours of hard work; this work may include not only acting, but backstage work, leadership and many other essential tasks.

The first winner of this letter in the 1949-1950 group was Betsy DeBelius following her work in "As You Like It." Carolyn Riehm, Mary Jo Carteaux, and James Jackson won their letters because of their work in "Thin Ice." Four more dramatic students, Sandra Febles, Mariann Menely, Clair Cripe, and David Moses, earned their letters for the work they did in "Little Women." The last to join the group were Kenneth Freiburger and Michael Eckhart after completing their work in "Our Town."

"PIONEER GLORY"

"By dawn's early light, what do we see?" is the theme song that many times comes into the minds of those twenty-two students of Kendallville High School, who participated in the "Pioneer Glory" pageant last summer.

This historical pageant, presented in Ross-Ade Stadium at Purdue University, was produced and directed by Howard Tooley. The history of Indiana's progress from its beginning to the present time was gloriously portrayed for ten nights by two hundred fifty students chosen by outstanding High School directors from over twenty Indiana towns.

During the time of rehearsing and presenting the play, the students were housed at the Bunker Hill dormitory and were served delicious meals in the Cary Hall cafeteria. In their spare time, they could go swimming, play tennis, look over the campus, sit in the cool lounge and play games or even go into Lafayette to a movie. Specially planned entertainment included a formal reception for the governor, a formal dance and a picnic at Columbia Park. There really was never a dull moment for anyone.

In a pageant made up of music, ballet, marching and dramatic interludes, Kendallville High School students directed by Miss Robertson, had some excellent parts. Historical characters like George Washington, Uncle Sam, Abraham Lincoln, and Governor Morton were realistically taken by Clair Cripe, Art Flickinger, Jim Maloon, and Bob Miller respectively. Jim Jackson, Reeve Whitson, Jim Maloon and Bob Miller all had speaking parts which were spoken into a microphone of the public address system.

Much humor was added by Kenny Freiburger as a drunken hunter at a square dance and Beverly Landgraff as a domineering wife leading her husband around the circus grounds. "While Strolling Through the Park One Day" was the background music played while Kathleen Buuck and Betty Stephens, as maids, wheeled baby carriages across the stage. Pioneers, nurses and sweethearts of soldiers were played by Carolyn Riehm, Mary Jo Carteaux, Betsy DeBelius, Elizabeth Thrapp, Gail Greiling, Elizabeth Knight and Marilyn Axel. To show characters of different books written by Indiana authors, Iantha Lambright was Alice of Old Vincennes, Jim Hetrick was Abe Martin, and Sandra Febles, "That Old Sweetheart of Mine." One of the highlights of the dances was Donald Swank's Eagle dance which was directed by Mr. Browman of Kendallville.

The students received a certificate stating they were members of the original cast of "Pioneer Glory," however, they don't need the certificate to remind them of this wonderful experience.

STORY OF THE SPOTLIGHT

Once upon a time a story was written by a SPOTLIGHT reporter. A lot of thought as well as humor went into this story. Next, a brand new page had to be made ready for it. But before it could go any further, it had to be cleaned and brushed up a bit by the SPOTLIGHT nurse. The story had to be fit into a pattern before it could go on this new page. At last it's all ready for it's place in the SPOTLIGHT.

SECOND SEMESTER STAFF

But before it could go on, a page of the SPOTLIGHT had to be pressed for it. The story was put in one end of a machine and it came out the other end a finished product, a page of the SPOTLIGHT. The final trip of the little story was its distribution to school students and other subscribers. These little stories are sent on these special trips by a happy SPOTLIGHT staff every month and on special occasions.

Well here it is almost the end of the year and it seems like it was only last week that we had our first cabinet meeting, a picnic, down at the lake. We chose our theme then, "With All Your Getting; Get Understanding." Since then we have had many interesting meetings.

September 21 — We had a wiener roast at the lake. Then the cabinet interpreted the Y-Teen purpose. Margaret Scott had the devotions and Sallie Gardner had the music.

October 14 — Mrs. Evan Bergwall gave a very interesting talk on "If I were In High School Again." Devotions were given by Susie Squire and music by Luanne Johnson.

October 18 — At this meeting we all joined in a discussion of Sub-Deb Problems. Several of the girls had articles on this topic which were discussed. Shirley Hart had devotions and Jo Ellen McCormick was in charge of music.

November 1 — Recognition was held for new members in a candlelight service in the little gym.

November 15 — This was the night we entertained our Fathers at our Father-Daughter Desert. Miriam Flickinger was toastmistress, and the welcome was given by Nannette Haley and Mr. Fiantdt, Pat-nella's father responded. Mr. and Mrs. Ber Geyer, our guest speakers, talked on "People Around the World." They also showed several films. Devotions were lead by Mary Jo Carteaux and music was under the leadership of Janet Shaffer and Gail Greiling.

MEETINGS

Nov. 29 Miss Mary Jane Swigget, from the college of Occupational Therapy, Philadelphia, gave a talk on "New Life for the Handicapped." She also showed a film. Devotions were given by Ann Appleman and Sandra Febles had the music. Dec. 13 Mr. David Sunderlund, from the Warner Beauty College at Fort Wayne, gave us a talk on taking a course in Beauty College. Devotions were given by Beverly Landgraff and Martha Lieb was in charge of the music.

Dec. 16 we had our annual Christmas Party for the children. Santa delivered presents to all the children. We heard a Christmas story and sang several songs, then refreshments were served. Everyone went home happy.

Jan. 17 Mrs. Adele Ruderman gave a talk concerning the Jewish religion. Joann Thomas gave devotions and Elizabeth Thrapp had the music. Feb. 1 "Protestantism" was the topic of Rev. Evan Bergwall's talk. He gave the background and fundamentals of the Protestant religion. Mariann Menely gave devotions and Evelyn Coleman was in charge of the music.

Feb. 28 was our big night. We entertained our mothers at our annual Mother-Daughter Desert. After desert was served, a chorus of Y-Teen girls sang two songs. Carolyn Riehm gave devotions and Nannette Haley gave the welcome. Mrs. Kenneth Brady sang two songs in response. Mrs. H. B. Marx, our guest speaker, spoke on "Growing Up." Miriam Flickinger was toast-mistress. We closed the meeting with "Follow the Gleam" and "Taps."

March 14 Father Mathieu gave a talk on the Catholic religion. Devotions were given by Lola Shultz and Joyce Milnar was in charge of music. March 28 we had our second recognition service in the little gym in a candlelight service. Several new members were recognized.

April 11 we had a discussion between the boys and girls on teen-age problems. Devotions were given by Cleo Dukes and music by Janice Owens. April 25 "What the Business World Expects of You" was the topic of the talk given by Mr. Donn Bishop, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Lois Overholser had the devotions and Sharon Gehring was in charge of the music. May 9 was our last meeting of the year. We had installation of next year's officers and Senior Farewell.

This year we had several projects. We took a trip to Dearborn, Michigan, and went to the District Conference at Garrett. We also collected chocolate bars for Christmas to send overseas, and we rented traws at the Indoor Fair. On May 26 we had our last get together at our formal dance.

O. O. Guymon, known to everyone as "Pop", has just finished his twenty-first year as Athletic Director. His full time job of ordering equipment and planning the schedules for the teams is a job well done.

Robert Igney, the basketball coach for our high school, did a good job this year with the team by winning the Sectional. He also does an excellent job in his gym classes.

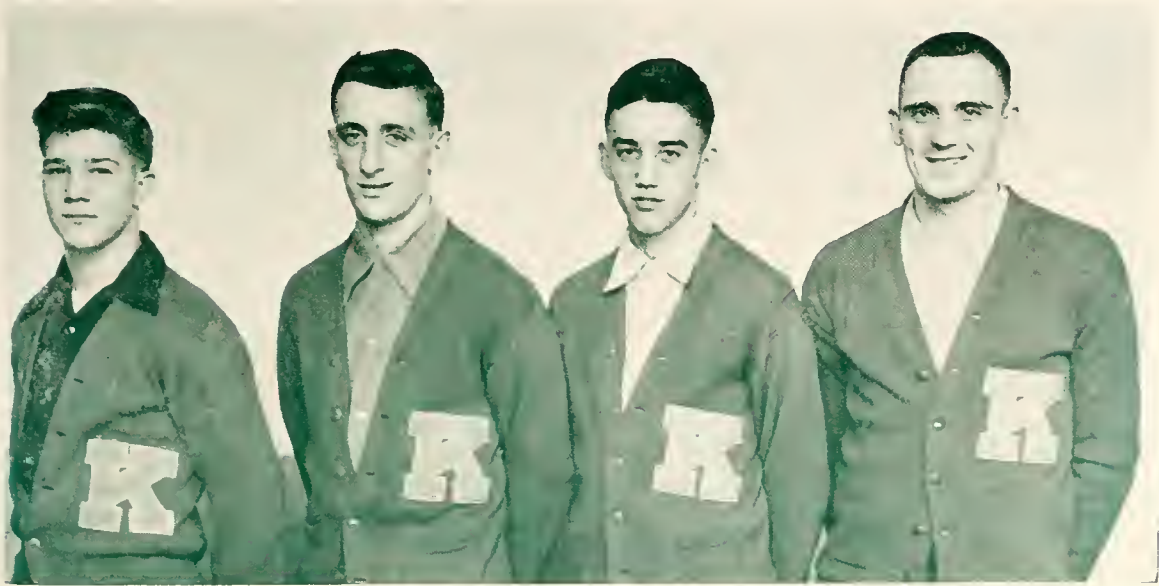

Lee Bushong, the track and Cross-Country coach won the first N. E. I. C. championship with his fine team. During the winter when running is out of season, he coaches the eighth grade team and is in charge of intramural games.

Amos Hall was the student manager for the "50" basketball team. His job, consisting of keeping the supplies in order and having them ready for the players on time, kept him busy during practices and after each game. He won the praise of the coach and the team for a job well done.

THE VARSITY

The Kendallville Comets completed the 1949-50 season with a record of 16 wins in 25 starts. The Comets' tournament luck was a little better than the past few years. The Comets lost to Nappanee for the second straight year in the New Year's Day Tournament.

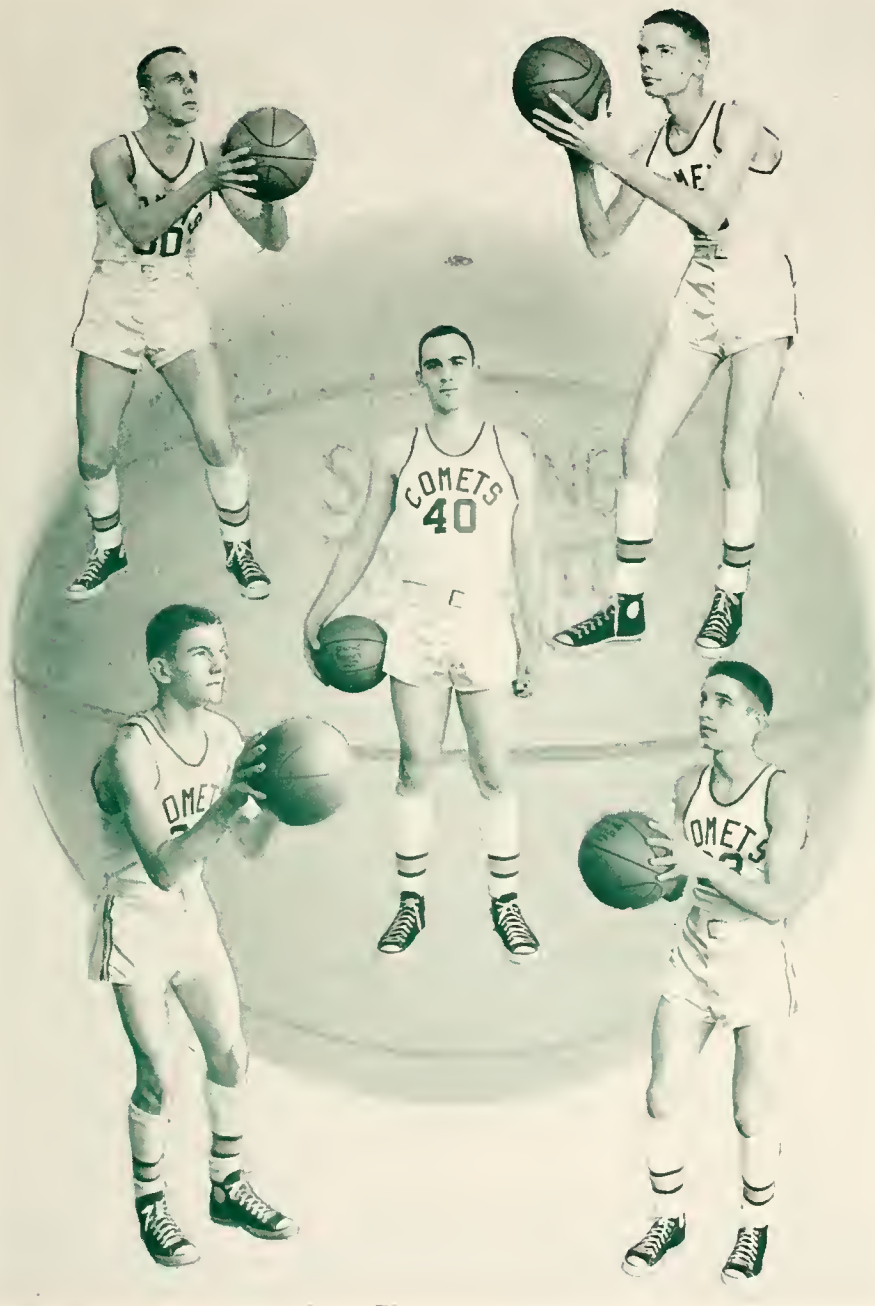

Kendallville won the sectional for the first time since 1947. They defeated a little but mighty team from Brighton for the crown. We were later defeated in the first game of the Regional by Auburn.

The team averaged forty-eight points per game against forty-two for the opposition.

Three boys will be lost by graduation - - Mert Gienger, Joe Hornett, and Jerry Thomas - - but the Comets may be a very strong team in 1951.

 They had a very good season in winning 9 and losing only 1.

JUNIOR HIGH TEAM

Front Row: Herman Davis, Bob Cotner, Keith Marti, Bill Leamon.
 Second Row: Duane Axel, Ray Scott, Wayne Kimmel, LeRoy Young, Lynn Liebing, John Moses.
 The Junior High Team won 3 games and lost 5.

TRACK

The K. H. S. track team had a good season and started off by winning their first meet which was a three-way-affair. Kendallville collected $86\frac{1}{2}$, Albion $48\frac{1}{2}$ and Wolf Lake 22. Their next foe was Central Catholic of Fort Wayne whom they also defeated by a score of $59\frac{1}{2}$ to $49\frac{1}{2}$. Their first defeat came when they were beaten badly by Auburn 86 to 29. They traveled to Columbia City and lost their second meet 59 to 50, their first away from home. The Comets did well at the Goshen relays by placing 6th. The Comets beat the Garrett team by a score of 65 to 44 after losing two.

The Comets placed 5th with $21\frac{1}{2}$ points in the N.E.I.C. meet at Columbia City.

The Comets running at Howe lost a close race all the way, the relays determining the final score 58 to 51. In the last meet of the year, the Comets came through to beat New Haven 75-34. They won four of their seven meets.

The mile relay record was broken this year by an experienced team. The four boys running when they broke the record were Joe Hornett, Dick Vaughn, Frank Messer and Dick Mory.

They ran it in 3 minutes 52.6 seconds.

TRACK

These boys broke individual records during the track season.

Top Row: Dick Vaughn, Mile record, 5 minutes 7.5 seconds;

Pat McGriffin, High Hurdles 15.8; Low Hurdles 24.0; Shot Put, 44 feet 4½ inches;

Keith Nesbitt, 220 Dash, 23.8 seconds.

Bottom Row: Dick Mory, 440 Dash, 55.4 seconds;

Tom Skiles, High Jump, 5 feet 8 inches;

Kay Kirkwood, Broad Jump, 20 feet.

BASEBALL

There was a meeting held by the Tri-County Baseball League at the Sportsman Inn at Waterloo. By an unanimous vote, Kendallville was invited to become a member of the Tri-County Baseball League.

Each team will play each other once, then continue the schedule two more games in the same order as in the first round which will give each team an eight game schedule.

September 6—For the first game of the season the Comets traveled to Albion where they won by a score of 11 to 3.

September 12—The Comets won their second game from Rome City in a runaway contest by a 15 to 2 count.

September 15—In a second game with Albion, the Comets proved themselves a tough team as they won in another runaway 13 to 4.

September 19—In the first close game of their 1949-50 career, the Comets beat Waterloo in a thriller 10 to 9.

September 23—The Comets, after a slow start, cooled Pleasant Lake down when they won their fifth game of the season 13 to 3.

September 26—In a return game with the Rome City Romans, the Kendallville Comets won the game by the biggest margin of the season 22 to 2.

September 28—The first defeat came when the Comets were trounced by Waterloo by an 8 to 1 count. The Comets got only 2 hits.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Comets had a very good season winning all of their scheduled meets. The team was well balanced and showed their strength in winning the N.E.I.C. held at Decatur, by beating Decatur by one point. Garrett was third.

In the Sectional held at Fort Wayne the Comets turned in a good performance by placing fourth behind North Side, South Side, and Wabash. There were eleven participating schools.

Lee Bushong, coach of the cross country team, was well pleased with his team. They were all proud of the trophy they won for K.H.S. by winning the N.E.I.C.

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

When a renown painter paints a portrait, he studies the subject to learn his true character so that he paints not only line and form but character. When we look at the finished portrait we meet an individual with character and personality.

A renown painter, Kay Aitch Ess, has painted many true life pictures and here is one of the best. This is Miss Francis Miller, the girl's physical education instructor and the G. A. A. advisor. Kay Aitch Ess has studied her for three years and in the picture G.A. A. members see a good sport dressed in shorts with a whistle around her neck; a true friend and teacher with a hearty smile, a sense of humor, a helping hand and a word of cheer and encouragement.

Below are the able leaders of the Girls Athletic Association. Under their leadership G.A.A. has enjoyed a playday, a new project of selling plastic all purpose bags, a cake sale, a dance and various other entertainment. Jerry Caldwell is president with Janice Owens as her assistant. Susie Trowbridge is secretary-treasurer.

G. A. A.

Here are the girls in the Girls Athletic Association who have earned at least 50 points and become regular members of G. A. A. These girls meet twice a week, every Monday night after supper and every Wednesday after school, to engage in various games and sports.

The point system is simple, but it encourages attendance and rewards the girls who strive for achievement. Each girl may earn ten points for participating in each sport six times; and ten points are given for a passing grade on achievement tests. The picture below shows all the girl's sports in K. H. S. except bowling which was introduced for the first time this year. Class letters are awarded for 150 points; a 'K' for 250 points and a State wall plaque for 350 points. These awards are made at the end of the school year on award day.

A successful cake sale was the first activity on the G. A. A. calendar this year, it gave a boost to the treasury. But more money was needed, so the girls then divided into four teams and sold plastic all-purpose bags. The team that sold the most bags was rewarded by a party given by the losing teams in the little gym on March 24. The girls entertained the boys at this party and square dancing as well as round dancing highlighted the evening.

Miss Miller was asked to serve as a district chairman for the State G. A. A. organization of which the G. A. A. of Kendallville was a member again this year.

The year closed with a picnic at Miss Miller's cottage at Syracuse.

BASKETBALL — FAVORITE SPORT

VOLLEY BALL PLAYDAY

The pictures on the preceding page show G. A. A.'s favorite sport, basketball. Girls' basketball isn't so well known as boys' today, but perhaps that is because of the difference in the rules for the two sports. However, the game can be plenty rough. All the girls cry and groan until Miss Miller starts basketball and then they still cry and groan because more than once each must go to the nurse's office to get a finger bandaged or a bruise relieved. But still, it is the sport the girls enjoy most.

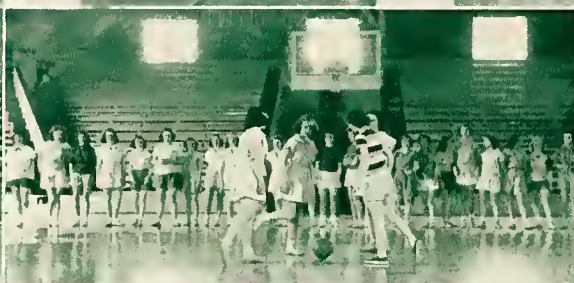

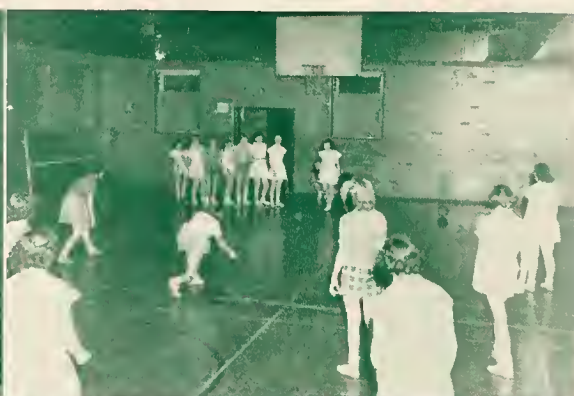

The G. A. A. volley ball playday was held at Kendallville this year. The two preceding years it was held at Columbia City. Two teams entered from each of these schools: Auburn, Columbia City, Warsaw, Angola, Albion and Kendallville. Auburn was the only undefeated team; while Kendallville won all their games except the two they lost to Auburn.

After the games in the morning refreshments were served and entertainment followed in the auditorium. After the games in the afternoon, an all star team was picked from the various school teams to play the teachers. Who won? The teachers, of course. All the G. A. A. girls are looking forward to another playday next year.

GIRLS EARN POINTS

DRIVERS OF TOMORROW

Last year for the first time in the history of K. H. S., students were given the opportunity to learn to drive an automobile as a part of their high school experiences. This drivers education and training course is made practical by the dual controlled car pictured above.

Preliminary class work concerns state rules and regulations, proper driving attitudes, and the qualities of a courteous and skillful driver. The student is then given behind-the-wheel driving instruction which gives him experience in actual driving situations. From the time he starts the engine until he has mastered parallel parking, the student becomes increasingly aware of the need for better drivers. Students who learn to drive well in the training course today should be among the best drivers of tomorrow.

Classes are taught by Miss Miller and Mr. Stouder. The following students have (or will have) completed the training course during this year:

Bell, Della
Biddle, Doris
Biddle, Deloris
Bogner, Mary

Mr. Tritch was having a hard time to keep the conversation going with one of the fathers at the Freshman-Parent party, so he began to remark on the number of pretty girls and good looking women at the party, but finally said, "Who is that terrible looking woman standing next to the door?"

"That is my wife."

"Er-er," stammered Mr. Tritch, "I didn't mean her, I meant the younger lady in the door."

"That's my daughter," said the father as he moved toward the door.

Senior: "Great Scott! I've forgotten who wrote 'Ivanhoe'."

Junior: "I'll tell you if you tell me who the dickens wrote 'The Tale of Two Cities.' "

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of 1950, being of sound mind and of great ability, contrary to all rumors and opinions, do hereby make, publish, and declare this our last will and testament, in the manner following:

ARTICLE I

We hereby will to the faculty of Kendallville High School a little peace and quiet. To the janitors, we will all our old papers and our engraved initials wherever they appear. To Mr. Tritch, Mr. Schwab, and Mr. Brumbaugh in particular, we will new faces to take our places in the daily visits to the office.

ARTICLE II

We will and bequeath our talents, abilities, private toys, and other things we may not have as follows: Kenny Alexander, my height to Phil White; Virginia Bogner, my front seat in auditorium to anyone who is near-sighted; Bob Butler, my loving kindness for Miss Goodwin to Don Gochenhaur; Mary Jo Carteaux, my little sister to anyone who will have her; Rex Casselman, my boisterousness to shy Phyllis Wible; Evelyn Coleman, my long hair to Pat Fiantd; Clair Cripe, my sense of humor to Alfred Gutstein; Maxine Day, my short name to Shirley Schlichtenmyer; Betsy DeBelius, my way with Mr. Metz to Ann Appleman; Rose Dickerson, my interest in Albion to Dorothy Gienger; Howard Diehm, my tenor voice to Kenny Freiburger; Hazel Donley, my flat feet to anyone who thinks they have trouble buying shoes; Cleo Dukes, my frat pin to any junior girl who goes with a college boy; Mike Eckhart, my ability to save a girl a seat in English to Sonny Fritz; Sandra Febles, my way with men to Diane Erwin; David Fiantd, my temperamental Ford to a good "cranker"; Bill Frehse, my deep voice to John Hutchins; Pearl Friskney, my long curly hair to Pat Borden; Sally Gardner, my shyness to Sue Trowbridge; Julia Ann Garrison, my modest blush to Ruth Blechle; Ilse Gentry, my red hair to Mary Brady; Kenny Gerber, my superior ability of not missing a day of school to Joe Leitch; Merlin Gienger, my manly physique to John Rensberger; Phyllis Greenman, my height to Nadine Windle; Nannette Haley, my ability to keep one man to Joyce Milnar; Amos Hall, my harem to Dave Hosler; Helen Hart, my deportment grades to Bob Cain; Bob Hill, my companionship with a "star basketball player" to Miriam Flickinger; Harold Hoffelder, my fishing pole to Reginald Neal; Barbara Householder, my yodelling ability to Jeannette Bourne; Joe Hornett, my dancing ability to Don Jones; Jim Jackson, my dramatic ability to Scot Greiling; Clyde James and Sara Wagner, our rides home at noon to Shirley Schlichtenmyer and Walter Muesing; Phil Kaiser, my oratorical ability to Homer Rasler; Bob and Bill Krueckeberg, our ability to fool the teachers to the Biddle twins; Paul Kuehn, my National Guard record to Art Danzer; Iantha Lambricht, my height to Doretta Dungan; Beverly Landgraff, my will power in dieting to Carol Howell; Beverly Lane, my limousine to Jim Hile; Janet Leonard, my artistic ability to Beverly McKinley; Martha Lieb, my ability to play the trumpet to Cleon Point; Doris Marti, my slacks to Jeannette McCormick; Jo Ellen McCormick, my blue eyes to Ann Appleman; Keith Mendenhall, my trampoline ability to Gerald Mefferd; Mariann Menely, I will my nickname to some junior who likes new ones; Roy Merkling, my trips in my jeep to Butch Alexander; Ed Miller, my temper to John Thrapp; Bob Mory, my toni set to Jim Hetrick; Marilee Mulholland, my diamond to any junior that wants companionship in old age; Lois Overholser, my ability to get a new car in the family to anyone who likes accidents; Hilton Paulus, my Chevy to Walter Muesing; Jean Reecer and Lola Schultz, our sistership to Helen Brown and Betty Fisher; Jim Renkenberger, my way with women to Dick Sutton; Barbara Rensberger, my hours at the hospital to Carolyn Spidel; Carolyn Riehm, my gift of gab to Josie Goodwin; Margaret Scott, my seat in assembly for Robert and Ruth to fight over; Barbara Seidel, my skillful(?) driving to Bertha Haney; Smally With, my spoon language to Lizzie Thrapp; Jerry Thomas, my ability to "stretch a dime" to Dave Moses; Joanne Thomas, my good nature to June Warble; Richard Vaughn, my weakness to blonds to Roger Berkes; Charles Walsh, my love for argument to John Thrapp; Mildred Wilks, my earrings to my sister Bunny; Elma Windle, my seat in senior assembly to Dave Zawadzke.

ARTICLE III

We bequeath to the up-and-coming senior class our practically new bandages and our speed in getting assignments out; and, to those few, if any, left behind we leave our ambition for a higher and better goal to help them climb the road. To the entire student body we will all our special rendezvous in the halls.

ARTICLE IV

We do hereby nominate and appoint Mr. Tritch, the leader of the school from which we are about to be graduated, to be executor of this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by us made.

In testimony whereunto we have set our hands and affixed our seal this fourth day of May, 1950.

Bob Mary - Pres.

Signed by the testator, Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty, as and for its last will and testament in our presence, who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

CLASS HISTORY

What's happened to our high school days? Only five years ago we were entering our 8th-grade year, yet it seems like five days. We had trouble trying to find the right rooms at first but we were all excited and it was so much fun! In the eighth grade we chose Joe Hornett for president; Iris McKeever, vice president; Margie Myers, secretary; Bob Butler, treasurer. Mrs. Lieb made a wonderful sponsor. Our motto was "We'll Find a Way or Make One." Our flower was the carnation, and our colors, blue and white. Our class party was a Christmas party.

When we became green Freshmen, we chose Clair Cripe, president; Joe Hornett, vice president; Margie Myers, secretary; and Bob Butler, treasurer. There were 98 in our class. Eleven came from Wayne Center, six from Jefferson Twp. and 15 from South Milford. That year Mr. Stouder was our sponsor. Our first party of the year was a skating party.

This year we were quite accustomed to the routine of high school, and why not? We were Sophomores! Miss Aungst was our sponsor with Joe Hornett as president; James Jackson, vice president; Sandra Febles, secretary; Mariann Menely, treasurer. We had a gay year of parties, our first being a "Come as you are party," and the second a "Square Dance."

Then we were Juniors and considered upperclassmen. We chose for our officers this year, Bob Butler, president; Amos Hall, vice president; Nannette Haley, secretary; Bob Mory, treasurer. We were all busy getting ready to give the Banquet for the Seniors and trying to sell as many magazines as we could. We also ordered our class rings and were very anxious to get them. It was time to start thinking about our annual for next year, so we elected Lois Overholser as editor and Bob Butler as business manager. We had a lot of fun getting our class play, "Thin Ice," ready to give, with the help of Miss Eminger, our director. We could always look to Miss Power, our sponsor, for help.

Finally the time has come that all have been looking for. We are Seniors! This will really be the last time we will all be together, and we want to make it a good time to remember. Our class officers for this year are Bob Mory, president; Joe Hornett, vice president, Sandra Febles, secretary, Nannette Haley, treasurer. For our class party we had a square dance, which included a Sadie Hawkins Day Race. Our class play, "Little Women," directed by Miss Robertson, was presented in December, with the help of several Juniors. Everyone has been busy getting class pictures taken, ordering announcements and name cards, and getting measured for our caps and gowns. Graduation is close.

We want to thank Miss Goodwin, our class sponsor, for the wonderful cooperation she has given us in our last year of school.

CLASS PROPHECY

"Oh pardon me—why if it isn't Professor Menely. I never expected to see you at the Kendallville World's Fair. Isn't this a coincidence? Say, I read where you and Professor Febles discovered a cure for cancer."

Carolyn Riehm, when did you return home? I heard that you have started a mission in Southern Siberia."

"Since I've returned everyone has been talking about Krueckeberg's Cricket Circus here on the fair grounds, and I was wondering if it could be our same Bob and Bill that we never could tell apart."

"Hear ye! Hear ye! Starting in ten minutes is the great exhibition basketball game of the nation's Top Ten Thomases coached by their father, Gerald Thomas!"

"Imagine that! Jim Renkenberger is barking for "Scrub" Thomas' high-ranking basketball stars."

"Well, Mariann, I also heard that Harold Hoffelder, who is managing the Brooklyn Dodgers, is in the stand with his star catcher, Amos Hall. The game is being televised by David Fandt, the chief telecaster of the BLANK network."

"Now, hear the band striking up. Let's go in and see if it could be Lippy Lieb and her Labial Ladies."

"We'd better hurry and get our tickets. Why, there is Helen Hart selling tickets."

"Ladies and gentlemen! This is Bob "Hilliard" Hill, your BLANK network announcer, about to bring you the play-by-play broadcast. The game is about to get under way, and there is Mayor Carteaux getting ready to throw the ball in for the first game of the season."

Here is your announcer bringing you the between-halves message, concerning Duke's Delicious Dogs."

"Carolyn, speaking of dogs, that reminds me, I read that Barbara Seidel has a Cat and Dog Hospital!"

"Yes, one of her frequent patrons is Pearl Friskney, who owns the Kennels of Friskney's Frisky Feline."

"Oh, let's do go out on the grounds and take a ride on Frehse's Ferris Wheel."

"Mariann, wasn't that fun? We're now passing the Civic Opera house and do you hear Rose Dickerson practicing for her Carnegie Hall debut?"

"Say, did you know that Barbara Householder is soloist with the Sons of the Pioneers?"

"Really? I'm hungry. Let's stop in at Reecer's Ritz Restaurant where their specialty today is Shultz's Spanish Sauce for Swiss Steak."

"This food is really delicious. Do you realize some of our past classmates have really become quite renowned. Bob Butler and Mike Eckhart are building an expansion bridge across the ocean. Also, Jim Jackson has just been awarded the Nobel Peace Prize for successfully constructing the first Rocket Ship to the moon which was piloted by Paul Kuehn."

"Then too, Lois Overholser developed the new material Orlon, successor to Nylon. Nor we mustn't forget Barbara Rensberger's fame in becoming the designer of clothes for all movies and Mildred Wilks styling the stars' hair."

"Isn't it too bad that Dick Vaughn couldn't be here for the Kendallville World's Fair, but he's running track in the Olympics in Switzerland."

"Look, Mariann, there's Mr. Robert Mory sitting at that table. Did you know that he owns an extensive chain of grocery stores throughout the country?"

"Yes, and many of our group founded schools, or at least teach. There's Virginia Bogner's exclusive school for girls in Massachusetts, Ilse Jean Gentry's Comptometer school in New York, Nan Haley's modeling school in Hollywood, and Miller's Mental Institute."

"Yes, and there's Joan Thomas who is a math professor at Western, and Wally Smith teaches at Yale."

"How time flies! It's two o'clock; we'd better hurry if we expect to see the ag judging. Notice that huge potato; it's one foot in diameter. Why, that's Kenneth Alexander's exhibit!"

"Oh, and there's Jesse James visiting from his 10,000-acre ranch in Wyoming and looking over the fair exhibits. With him is Hilton Paulus with his grand champion steer imported from Baluchistan."

"Here comes Iantha Lambright. Oh, Carolyn, she's married now!"

"Is she? Well, so are several of the other girls. Of course you know that Beverly Landgraf, Betsy De-Belius, Doris Marti, Jo Ellen McCormick, and Margaret Scott have been married for several years."

"Let's leave the fair ground and go up to the main section of Kendallville. How about an atomic sundae at Donley's Devastating Drugstore?"

"All right, but first, Carolyn, I'll get my car out of Mendenhall's garage. It's a Diehm's Duick just off the assembly line was designed by Howard Diehm."

"Let's turn on the radio; it's about time for Sallie Hedda Hopper Gardner and her most recent gossip."

"Who's that Miss Gardner is speaking about; whose horse won the race at Steeple Down Chase in England? Could it be Charlie Walsh of our class of '50?"

"Yes, Mariann, and Rex Caselman is his jockey. Oh, Miss Gardner says that Clair Cripe, our foreign ambassador to Slobovia, has returned to the United States with his private secretary, Julian Ann Garrison."

"Listen, Carolyn—Janet Leonard's art exhibition is opening at Gerbersville, formerly called Corunna."

"My goodness, Joe Crooner Hornett is having his premier for his latest picture at Merckling's Millionaire Resort at Palm Beach."

"Now it's time for Miss Gardner to leave the air and for the program, 'A Day in the Life of Maxine Day,' to begin."

"Isn't this a lovely drive! Oh, look, there's the shop of Coleman's Corsets for Classy Chassis. Incidentally, that's where Phyllis Greenman works."

"Watch out, Carolyn, there's a cop following us."

"Oh, I'm sorry, officer, I didn't realize I was driving so fast. Why, if it isn't Mert Gienger!"

"Here's Kaiser's hotel; let's spend the night here. I hear Beverly Lane operates the cocktail bar in the hotel. Wait a minute until I get a newspaper. Say' it's edited by Elma Windle and Sara Wagner."

"This certainly has been an eventful day. Wasn't it interesting to see all our former classmates, Carolyn?"

"Yes, and to see how the town has grown and how it involves the lives of our friends."

"I hope we can see all of our classmates again soon. Goodnight."
